Registration Guidelines for the Education Program

Registration as an AFCPE® Approved Education Program provides students with the opportunity to obtain the AFC at a deeply discounted rate. The price to complete the traditional program is $1,400, but students at an AFCPE Approved Education Program are eligible to challenge the exam for a total amount of just $490.

AFCPE Mission

Program Guidelines

- All AFCPE Approved Education Programs must be post-secondary institutions accredited by one of the six regional accrediting agencies recognized by the Department of Education, and all coursework should be, at a minimum, at an Undergraduate level of study.
- The Supervising Professor, a faculty member of the College/University, must be an AFC® in good standing or have a graduate level degree in financial planning, financial counseling or other degree approved in writing by AFCPE on a case-by-case basis.
- Coursework must cover subject areas corresponding to the core competencies required to sit for the AFC® certification exam (6 credit hour minimum requirement).

- Required curriculum should be within a program that supports student development in personal finance, debt management, and counseling skills through additional coursework and/or other educational or experiential opportunities.
- Programs interested in becoming an AFCPE Approved Education Program may apply by completing the "Initial Application: AFCPE Approved Education Program" form below and submitting to sparrish@afcpe.org.
- AFCPE Approved Education Programs are required to renew every three years and report any substantive changes to programs and curriculum between renewal periods.

Student Requirements:

- Ethics:

Certification Process

Register with AFCPE®: Once a student has completed the required coursework at an AFCPE Approved Education Program, they may register for AFC® certification through the myAFCPE online system at www.my.afcpe.org. They will be required to upload a copy of their transcript for verification of their eligibility and pay the initial registration fee (currently $50, but subject to change at any time at AFCPE's sole discretion). While there is no requirement to do so, students may elect to order educational materials or participate in a review program to prepare for the exam when they register.

Schedule the AFC® Certification Exam: After a student's registration has been processed and eligibility verified, the student may schedule a time to take the AFC certification exam. To do so, they must return to their myAFCPE account and pay the exam fee (currently discounted to $440). Within three days of paying the exam fee, they will receive communication from the Exam Proctor with scheduling instructions. The exam may be taken on a date convenient for the student but will be subject to date/time availability of the Exam Proctor and the chosen testing site.

Pass the AFC® Certification Exam: The AFC certification exam consists of 1 comprehensive exam covering all competencies determined through the most recent AFCPE® Job Analysis. The computerized exam contains 165 multiple choice questions designed to test recall skills and the candidate's ability to apply knowledge, interpret data and solve problems. Candidates are given 3 hours to complete the exam. (For additional information see the AFCPE Candidate Handbook available on our website.)

Attain the Required Experience: All candidates must attain 1,000 hours of relevant financial counseling/education experience. Experience may be either paid or volunteer but must be specific to personal or family finance. Experience may be obtained in conjunction with exam preparation or following successful completion of the exam, as long as all requirements are completed within the designated timeframe. Students may also include relevant hours obtained up to 2 years before registering for AFC® Certification.

Reporting and Completing within Time Constraints: After passing the exam and attaining the experience hours, students must report their experience and agree to the Code of Ethics through their myAFCPE account. From the date of registration in the AFC® certification program, students have three years to complete all requirements for AFC certification.

This subsection shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

Status of Parties: In connection with this collaboration, University is acting as an approved program provider and not in any other capacity, with duties owing solely to AFCPE®.

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to create a joint venture, partnership, association, or other affiliation or similar relationship between the parties, it being specifically agreed that the relationship between the parties is and shall remain that of independent parties to a contractual relationship as set forth in this agreement. No party shall have the right or authority to assume or create any obligation on behalf of the other party.

Termination: This Agreement may be terminated in the following instances:

(a) This Agreement may be terminated by either party upon written notice if the other party breaches any material term of condition of this Agreement and such breach remains uncured thirty (30) days after receipt by the breaching party of written notice identifying the breach from the other party;

(b) The Association may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to University at any time that the University fails to meet a deadline.

Independent Principals: The parties are independent principals in all relationships and actions under and contemplated by this Agreement. This Agreement will not be construed to create any employment relationship, partnership, joint venture, or agency relationship between the parties, or to authorize any party to enter into any commitment of agreement binding the other.

Confidentiality: Each of the University and Association may disclose information it considers confidential to the other to facilitate the Program. Each party shall use all reasonable efforts to treat and keep confidential, and cause its officers, employees, agents, and subcontractors or other persons involved with the Program to treat and keep confidential, any such information marked "Confidential" received by it from the other party. Such reasonable efforts will be no less than the efforts used by the recipients to protect its own confidential information, but in no event less than a reasonable effort given the nature of the confidential information. The obligation to keep information confidential shall not apply when the recipient had possession of the information before being provided with the same by the disclosing party, when the information becomes public knowledge through no fault of the recipient, when the information is received by the recipient from a third party without the recipient having a duty of confidentiality, when the recipient is ordered by judicial or administrative process to disclose any or all of the information, or if the discloser gives prior written consent to the discloser.

Limit of Commitment: Unless otherwise stated in writing, this Program is made with the understanding that the Association has no other obligation to provide other additional support to the University.

Non-Waiver: Any failure by any party to detect, protest, or remedy any breach of this Agreement will not constitute a waiver or impairment of any such term or condition, or right of such party at any time to avail itself of such remedies it may have for any breach or breaches of such terms or conditions.

Severability: If any provision hereof is declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, such provision will be ineffective only to the extent of such invalidity, so that the remainder of that provision and all remaining provisions of this Agreement will continue in full force and effect.

Force Majeure: No party will be in default by reason of any failure in performance of this agreement if such failure arises, directly or indirectly, out of causes reasonably beyond the direct control or foreseeability of such party, including but not limited to, acts of God or of a public enemy, U.S. or foreign governmental acts in either a sovereign or contractual capacity, labor, fire, flood, epidemic, strikes, and/or freights embargoes (a "Force Majeure Event"). Such failure in performance shall be excused for as long as (a) such Force Majeure Event continues and (b) the non-performing party continues to use its best efforts to recommence performance whenever and to whatever extent possible without delay. The non-performing party shall immediately notify the other party of the occurrence of the Force Majeure Event and describe in reasonable detail the nature of the Force Majeure Event. Governing law and Jurisdiction, Arbitration: This Agreement shall be governed by, construed, and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without regard to its rules governing conflict of law. The party asserting a dispute will advise the other party and the parties will thereafter attempt to resolve the claim by negotiation. All disputed matters that cannot be resolved by the parties through negotiation will be settled by binding arbitration in accordance with the rules and procedures of the American Arbitration Association; provided, however, that (a) for a controversy, claim or dispute involving an amount of less the $250,000, such matter shall be decided by a single arbitrator appointed jointly by the parties, and (b) for controversy, claim or dispute involving an amount of $250,000, or more, such matter shall be decided by a three-arbitrator panel jointly appointed by the parties. In any event, (1) submission of any claim, dispute, controversy or other matter in questions to the American Arbitration Association shall not be required if the parties agree upon another arbitration forum, (2) the parties may pursue judicial or other remedies for infringement of a registered patent, trademark, service mark or copyright or other intellectual property right, (3) the parties shall not submit claims for punitive damages, and do hereby waive any right to same, and (4) the arbitrators shall not be authorized to award punitive damages. The arbitrator(s) may (but shall not be obligated to) include in any determination that the unsuccessful party in any action or proceeding, shall pay for all costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the prevailing party or its agents or both in enforcing the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The term "prevailing party" as use herein will include, without limitation, a party who utilizes legal counsel and brings an action against the other party by reason of the other party's breach or default and obtains substantially the relief sought. The arbitration proceeding shall be held in the State of New York, unless otherwise agreed by the arbitrators or the parties.

Counterparts: This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts (including facsimile), each of which shall be deemed an original, and such counterparts together shall constitute but one and the same instrument; provided that in the event facsimile counterparts are exchanged, the parties will exchange originals via overnight courier within three days of the exchange of the facsimile counterparts.

Term and Termination: This Agreement shall become effective as of the date first stated below, and shall remain in effect for three years (the "Initial Term"), unless earlier terminated by AFCPE in accordance with this provision. AFCPE may terminate this Agreement at any time by providing ninety (90) days advance written notice to Education Program. Unless earlier terminated by AFCPE, Education Program may, prior to the expiration of the Initial Term, renew program approval for additional successive three (3) year terms (the "Renewal Term") by submitting the renewal application during the Renewal Period (as defined below) and paying the accompanying fee, which is subject to change at any time at AFCPE's sole discretion. The "Renewal Period" will take place during the three months prior to the expiration of the Initial Term. Should Education Program fail to submit a renewal application prior to the expiration of the Initial Term, this Agreement shall automatically expire and Education Program shall immediately lose AFCPE Approved Education Program status and shall not use the name, logo, or any other identifying information of Association for any purpose including press releases, presentations, promotional materials or other communications without prior written consent of AFCPE. AFCPE retains the same termination rights described in this provision during the Renewal Term.
